Buto	Tvaine
Cataract and Refractive Lens Exchange Questionnaire
artificial lens. Some clear lenses that har for glasses. If surgery is appropriate for visual needs. It is important to understan	ens within the eye. When a cataract is removed ve not yet developed cataracts are removed you, this questionnaire will help us providend that many patients still need glasses for so you have questions, please let us know and you	to reduce or eliminate the need e the best treatment for your some activities after surgery.
Distance Vision (driving, golf, te	ed in seeing well without glasses in the followings, other sports, watching TV)  I wouldn't mind wearing Distant
Mid-range Vision. (computer, mI prefer no Mid-range glasses.	nenus, price tags, cooking, board games, i I wouldn't mind wearing Mid-r	items on a shelf) ange glasses.
	artphones, tablets, e-readers, sewing, deta I wouldn't mind wearing Near
a. Night vision is extremely impo	t best describes you in terms of night vision ortant to me, and I require the best possible fortably at night, but I would tolerate some important to me.	quality night vision.
3. If you had to wear glasses after surge glasses?Distance Vision.	ery for one activity, for which activity woul Mid-range VisionNea	d you be most willing to use ar Vision.
much farther away, in their laps. The ler of paper as a very rough ruler, try to est	ling material very close, while others prefer ngth of this sheet of paper from top to botto imate approximately how far from your fa on the following scale to provide a very ro	om is 11 inches. Using this sheet ace you prefer to hold your 16.5 inches
(1 paper length)	(1 and a half paper lengths)	(2 paper lengths)
5. If you could have good Distance , Mi that you might see some halos , rings , o	id-range, and Near Vision all without gla r starbursts around lights at night, would y	sses, but the compromise was you like that option? YesNo
6. If you could have good Distance and might need glasses for the finest print at	l Mid-range Vision without glasses, but the transfer would you like that option?	ne compromise was that youNo
7. If you have a cataract and would like significant portion of your overall proce	to reduce or eliminate the need for glasses, edure cost. Would you be interested in learnMaybe, it depends on ho	insurance may cover a sing more about this option? w much is covered by insurance.
	scale to describe your personality as best y
Easy going	II	Perfectionist

Please Sign Here_